By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Henry Earl of Deloraine was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to ſit in the Houſe of Peers of this preſent Parliament of Great Britain, and is ſince deceaſed; In order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to ſit in his Room, we do, by the Advice of our Privy Councel, iſſue forth this our Royal Proclamation, ſtrictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to aſſemble and meet at Holyrood-Houſe in Edinburgh, on Friday the Nineteenth Day of February next enſuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and chooſe another Peer of Scotland in the Room of the ſaid Henry Earl of Deloraine deceaſed, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that ſhall be then preſent, and of the Proxies of ſuch as ſhall be abſent, ſuch Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly ſigned before Witneſſes, and both the Conſtituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law. And the Lord Clerk Regiſter, or ſuch Two of the Principal Clerks of the Seſſion, as ſhall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby reſpectively required to attend ſuch Meeting, and to adminiſter the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the ſaid Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after ſuch Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer ſo elected, and ſign and atteſt the ſame in Preſence of the ſaid Peers, and return ſuch Certificate into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we ſtrictly charge and command, that this our Royal Proclamation be duly publiſhed at the Market-Croſs at Edinburgh, and in all the County-Towns of Scotland, Twenty five Days at leaſt before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the ſaid Peers to proceed to ſuch Election.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty firſt Day of December, 1729, in the Fourth Year of Our Reign.

God Save the KING.

Moſcow, Dec. 10. Her Czariſh Majeſty has had a ſlight Indiſpoſition, but is at preſent entirely recovered of it. Yeſterday M. de Weſtphalen, Envoy Extraordinary from Denmark, had an Audience of her Czariſh Majeſty, at which he imparted to her the Death of the late King his Maſter, and the Prince Royal of Denmark's Acceſſion to the Throne; and at the ſame Time delivered to her Imperial Majeſty a Letter from the preſent King on thoſe Occaſions. The Court will go into Mourning for ſix Weeks for the Death of the ſaid Prince. This Day will be celebrated at the Palace the Feſtival of St. Andrew, and all the Knights of that Order are invited in the Evening to a ſplendid Entertainment.

Warſaw,
